1128 Pine Street Boulder CO 80302 | 303.442.1787 | www.firstcong.net

Welcome to First Congregational Church, a community of faith on a journey of faith. Founded in 1864, the first church built in Boulder, we have been gathering ever since as a community of kindred hearts to worship and grow in the light of God's grace, to extend ourselves in compassionate service, and to be instruments of God's transformation in the world.

As a member congregation of the United Church of Christ, we believe "God is still speaking." Like our Pilgrim forbears, we trust "there is yet more light and truth to break forth from God's holy Word."

Inspired by God's boundless grace as revealed in the radical love of Jesus Christ, we aim to make the words "All are Welcome" as inclusive as they sound. Whoever you are and wherever you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

If you would like to donate FLOWERS for a special occasion or in honor or memory of a loved one for an upcoming Sunday service, please contact Anne Byrne 303-601-7671 (annebyrnehome@comcast.net).

We have a HEARING LOOP SYSTEM in the Sanctuary which sends sound directly into a hearing aid/cochlear implant. Switch your hearing aid to T-coil. Or, in both the Sanctuary and Chapel, pocket-sized FM receivers are also available from the ushers. BYO earbuds or use the new ones provided. WHEELCHAIRS are also available, please ask an usher for assistance.

Through YOUR GIVING online or in-person, you can count on the nurturing ministry of FCC Boulder Church. Each one of us plays an important part, including through our financial support.

On the Cover: The resilient Amache Rose's propagated plant cuttings bloomed for the first time at the Denver Botanic Gardens Thursday. The blooming time was serendipitous because it coincided with the official designation of the Amache Internment Camp as a National Historic Site. The Amache Rose varietal was developed by a prisoner at the internment camp 80 years ago as a way to bring beauty and a sense of normalcy to the harsh environment. For some, the flower's survival in the desert lends it a spiritual meaning. The rose's survival after the camp's closure represents the enduring spirit of those who lived through the injustices of internment. This is about human and plant connection. Knowing what the Amache Internment Camp was stirs up the emotions of the terrible ways humans treat each other. We see these repeating patterns all over the world of humans intolerant of other humans for all kinds of made-up reasons."

God of Abraham and Sarah

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Joanne Corson and Laura Riihimaki

One: Dear Creator God, You who know how many stars are in the sky, you who feel when a sparrow falls to the ground, and who knows each of your children by name.

All: With grateful hearts, we thank you and honor our siblings, the Indigenous First Peoples, for their care and stewardship of this land. In our world today, eighty percent of global biodiversity is on land managed by Indigenous people, evidence of their love, contributions, and wisdom. (silence).

One: God, your heart must break when you see how your children treat each other. Give us the courage and humility to see the truth of our history and the deep wounds of injustice created by our ancestors that continue to scar our hearts and our lands.

One: We acknowledge that the land where we live and worship today is the territory of the Arapaho, Cheyenne, Ute, and many other Native tribes. We honor Chief Left Hand, leader of the last Arapaho band to spend their winters in the Boulder Valley. We remember the many Arapaho and Cheyenne people brutally massacred by the Boulder-trained US Cavalry at Sand Creek, Colorado, in 1864, the same year First Congregational United Church of Christ was founded. The survivors were forced out of Colorado to reservations in Wyoming and Oklahoma, where most Arapaho live today.

One: We acknowledge the truth that these Native peoples were violently killed and barbarically uprooted by our ancestors and continue to be marginalized through European settler colonialism. We live in luxury now because of this displacement.

All: With sorrowful souls, we take a moment now to deeply feel the devastating and senseless loss of millions of Indigenous human beings. (silence)

One: We also grieve the loss of the Colorado that could have been. We grieve the loss of leadership and wisdom with the murder of chiefs at Sand Creek who were advocating for peace.

One: We grieve that instead of connection and community and hospitality, the originators of this town left us a legacy of theft and violence and inter-generational trauma.

All: We grieve the loss of cultural richness--the songs and dances and art, the food, the language and words and names for this land that we do not know. (silence)

One: God, hear us as we pray:

All: With the guidance of your unconditional love, we confess that we are living on stolen land, and we need to reconcile with our Native siblings. Please help us, God, to work toward creating authentic relationships and partnerships that recognize and build upon the continuing sovereignty of the Native peoples whose land we now occupy. God, you know what is in our hearts. Please guide us in actively committing to partnering with our Native siblings to learn how to lovingly care for this land together and live in harmony with all our kin. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Children and Youth may go to church school with Lianna and Louisa.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Jane Ireland

THE LORD'S PRAYER

From A New Zealand Book of Prayer

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain bearer, Life-giver,
Source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all,
Loving God, in whom is heaven:
The hallowing of your name echoes through the universe;
May the way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world,
Your heavenly will be done by all created beings,
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.
From trial too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

*RESPONSE OF PRAISE

Great God of Every Blessing

AURELIA

Great God of every blessing, of faithful, loving care, you are the fount of goodness, the daily bread we share.
How can we hope to thank you? Our praise is but a start:
sincerely and completely, I offer you my heart.

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION

"God, grant that we will get on board and start marching with you, because we got orders now to break down the bondage
and the walls of colonialism, exploitation, and imperialism.
To break them down to the point that no person will trample over another person, but that all people will respect the dignity and worth of human personality.
And then we will be in Canaan's freedom land. Amen."

This trip is open to all current high schoolers (grades 9-12).

Pick-a-Party and Silent Auction Invitation

Here's a great way to show your support for the Youth of our Church! The Board of Faith Formation is coordinating an auction (to be hosted in the springtime) and a Pick-a-Party event to raise money for their Mission Trip to Fort Worth, TX in June. Can you donate an auction item/experience or host a Pick-a-Party? Both of these fundraisers require donations of your time, talents or auction items to make it a success! Please use this link (<https://tinyurl.com/3d2h5suw>) to find out more, and sign up for the auction or to host a party. Thank you for your support!

Star Words-Pick up your Star Word in the Link

On Epiphany, we remember how a Star guided the Magi to the place where they found the Christ child. In keeping with their journey to move closer to Jesus, we invite you to join others in moving through the year with intention and in prayer. Enclosed in the Star Word envelope you can pick up from the basket in the Link, you will find a paper star with a word printed on it. Throughout the year, we invite you to reflect on the meaning of that word. Set your Star Word in a place where you will see it regularly. Notice the Star Word, reflect on it, and pay attention to where it shows up in your life, all year long. Our faith tells us that God uses many ways to guide us and speak to us. But we also know how easy it is to miss God's presence in our day-to-day living. Allow the Star Word to be a lens through which you look and listen for God in your midst, both actively and in hindsight. How might it enable you to see and hear God in ways you haven't before?

Yet beyond those challenges, churches remain vital to their communities, and we will explore the resources of tradition and imagination that can allow them to move into the future.

Envisioning the Church of the Future

Kristina Lizardy-Hajbi will join Nancy Ammerman as participants explore together the trends that are shaping, and will shape, church life.
